

Warhol Superstars

I'd like to give this site a gallery wall feel, allowing the viewer to scroll through archived prints, screen tests, and clips of Warhol's superstars, like Baby Jane (now better known as artist Jenny Holzer) or Nico (of the Exploding Plastic Inevitable) or Edie Sedgwick (of Poor Little Rich Girl). To narrow my focus, I'm hoping to zoom in on their involvement with Warhol during the Factory years.

Home Page/Introduction

A brief definition of the term 'Warhol Superstar' and a gallery wall of superstars in the context of their involvement. Photographs link to individual profiles.

Profiles

These should have a couple sentences about the superstar (who were they? How did they fit into Factory culture?) paired with a couple pieces of archived media: photographs or screen tests.

(the following names are randomly chosen examples and could be swapped out for anybody! There are dozens of Superstars; some are transvestite, some are male, some are poets, some are actors, etc etc. No shortage of material to choose from)

Baby Jane Holzer

Edie Sedgwick

Nico

Ultra Violet Her name inspired the 2018 color of the year!
